Has the Central Given In to th Swite imen at Buffalo?

General Master Workman Powderly arived at the St. Cloud Hotel from Buffalo 8 o'clock this morning, over the Delaare and Lackawanna road.

With him were John W. Hayes, Genral Secretary and Treasurer of the Knights of Labor; S. E. Wilkinson. rand Master of the Trainmen's Asso iation, and George Howard, Chairman of the Brotherhood of Railway Con-

Powderly and Hayes entered their mes on the registor of the St. Cloud and immediately went to their rooms, where Committeemen Holland and Wright were in waiting.

Wilkinson and Howard took a ca osa to the Grand Union Hotel, and in addition to their own names they regislered those of Grand Master Sweeney, of the Switchmen's Mutual Union, and Grand Master Sargent, of the Firemen's otherhood, who were due here at 1 o'clock.

They, however, stopped in Albany to look after strike matters there and this delayed them several hours.

The big labor leaders had been riding all night from Buffalo, and they all came here for the purpose of taking such action as will tend to bring the troubles on the New York Central either to a speedy tern or to the inauguration of fur her Mr. Powderly was loath to discuss the
